Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

Variation application to update the registered office address and to increase the accepted annual waste tonnage to site to 74,999 tonnes.

We also took the opportunity to correct condition numbering as there was an error within the previous permit.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
