Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

This variation permits the operator to accept 19 12 02 ferrous metal. Similar waste types are already accepted at the site. Condition 2.4.4 has been removed as it was incorrectly included in the previous version of the permit.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
