Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

The existing permit allowed a maximum of 64,000 free range layers over 2 poultry units. This variation is to:

- Change the bird type from free-range layers to broilers
- Increase number of birds permitted to 220,000
- Increase number of poultry units to 4 (repurposing of 1 existing poultry unit and construction of 3 new ones)

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
