NRW Environment officers Nathan Owen, Cathrine Kiely accompanied by NRW officer Gareth Siney, on the 25/05/2023 visited the Llansannan STW on the day we were escorted by Michaela Thompson the Northeast Catchment Manager along with Andrew Garner and Craig Grimshaw.

The weather on the day was warm with no rain having fallen for several days.

The inlet was free of debris and fungus.

The sludge tanks are below ground, sludge is removed and taken to Kinmel bay for further processing

RBC in operation.

Humus tank in operation.

Final Effluent chamber, which was free from fungus and growth.

Unfortunately, on the day it was not possible to inspect the outfall due to health and safety concerns in reaching the area.

The water leaving the site appeared to be clear.

NRW thanks DCWW for their time on the day

Regards
