This statement does not stop us from taking additional enforcement action if further relevant information comes to light or offences continue.

4. Details of our assessment

Routine site inspection carried out by Peter Jones and Edward Cox of the sewage treatment plant serving the Raglan Enterprise park.

Weather: Dry and sunny.

The sewage treatment plant is no longer functioning and there is no discharge of sewage effluent to the watercourse. Environment Officer Susan Lenthall was advised in September 2020 the discharge from the sewage treatment plant had been capped and Enviroteq were currently tankering effluent from the site.

The visit earlier today confirmed there is no discharge from the sewage treatment plant to the Nant y Wilcae. Peter Sherwin MCC, confirmed the works is not in use and effluent is still being tankered from the site and that MCC are considering replace the old treatment plant with a bio disc.

The current permit for site was issued by the National Rivers Authority Welsh Region (NRA) in 1992. Before any improvement works are carried out the permit will need to be varied to bring in line with the current permitting regime. Details on how to vary a permit can be found on our website at: Natural Resources Wales / Apply to vary \(change\) a permit for installations

I would be grateful if you could keep me informed of when you are considering replacing the existing system and if you need any advice on this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.
