

Abstraction License Supporting Information

Rights of access

Alun Griffiths (Contractors) Ltd are undertaking some upgrade works for Welsh Water, which is likely to require temporary dewatering.

The works are being undertaken using the powers of the Water Industry Act 1991, which enable Welsh Water and their contractors to install, and therefore access and maintain assets.

The s159 Notice can potentially be provided as further evidence, if required.