3. What will happen next?

Any non-compliance we have identified and recorded on this form is an offence. It can result in criminal prosecution or civil sanctions being imposed depending on the circumstances of the offence.

At this time, we do not intend to take any further action.

This statement does not stop us from taking additional enforcement action if further relevant information comes to light or offences continue.

4. Details of our assessment

I attended site on the 3 September 2024 on an unannounced inspection, the weather was showery clearing to warm sunny spells. Some heavy rain in the preceding few days had raised river levels.

Note this CAR for also applies to Abstraction WA/056/0053/006 and Impoundment WA/056/0053/019

I inspected the outfall for WA-056-0053-006 (-06) and WA-056-0053-018 (-18), which was discharging and spraying into the watercourse with the potential to increase erosion. I inspected the turbine house and took a photo of the meter reading.

I then headed up to inspect the intakes, starting with -018. This intake appears to be compliant. As I headed to -06 I noticed some tree damage to the track/pipeline but could not see any obvious leakage.

Following my inspection in 2023 it was raised that none of these schemes had fish easements which were required by some of the permit conditions, this never reached a successful conclusion. I suggest we revisit this matter now, following this year's inspection with the intention of having a resolution/plan ready for the renewal due in 2026.

ACTION: Prepare fish easement proposals in preparation for renewal in March 2026.

Having discussed with colleagues it has been agreed the most suitable way forward for Abstraction Returns is for our system to be amended to require returns from one of the licenses only per twin-intakes, thus avoiding any duplication. When the permits come in for renewal (due in 2026) this would potentially be included as an aggregate condition. This will be confirmed by the Water Resources Returns team.

ACTION: Submit abstraction returns in line with agreed process next April.

If you have any queries about this report, or to discuss completion of any actions, please contact the NRW Officer named above.
