Conditions of Acceptance of Advertisements

The publishers of Cambrian News and Allied publications do not guarantee the publication of any advertisements on a specified date, although every effort will be made to meet the requirements of advertisers. However, the publishers of Cambrian News and Allied publications reserve the right to decline to publish any advertisement without explanation.

Adverts are to be supplied as single page CMYK (Cyan, Magenta, Yellow, Black) PDF version 1.3 or 1.4. Spot colours/Pantone colours are not accepted. The advert is to be supplied to the booked size excluding white space around the advert. All files should be flattened without any password attachments. Resolution should be 300dpi for 4 colour and greyscale. Bitmap images should be 800lpi. Font must be embedded into the pdf or jpeg. Black text must be 100 per cent black only and not contain any of the other 3 colours. Black text on a colour background should be 100% black unless otherwise specified. Size must be 7pt minimum for black text and white out of black text. White out of colour text must be 9pt minimum. A Sans serif typeface is preferable for sharper reproduction. Dot gain is 26 per cent. The final artwork printed in newsprint will not have the same clarity as artwork printed on a sheetfed press. For good reproduction, the following colours are not recommended in adverts, burgundy, orange and gold.

Whilst every care will be taken with advertisers' artwork and similar material, no responsibility is accepted for damage to or loss of artwork or similar material however caused.

The publishers of Cambrian News and Allied publications will not accept responsibility for poor reproduction caused by use of smaller type sizes at the customer's request.

The publishers of Cambrian News and Allied publications will not accept liability for any loss or damage caused by an advertisement not being published, nor will they accept liability for any loss or damage caused by any error or inaccuracy in the printing of an advertisement. In case of error, misprint or omission in the printing of an advertisement or part of an advertisement the publishers of Cambrian News and Allied publications will either re-insert the advertisement or relevant part of the advertisement, as the case may be, or make a reasonable refund or adjustment to the cost. No re-insertion, refund or adjustment will be made where the error, misprint or omission does not materially detract from the advertisement. In no circumstances shall the total liability of the publishers for any error, misprint or omission exceed the amount of a full refund of any price paid to the publisher for the particular advertisement in connection with which liability arose or the cost of a further or corrective advertisement of a type and standard reasonably comparable with that in connection with which liability arose.

The terms of the recognition agreement between the Newspaper Society and/or between the Newspaper Proprietors Association and recognised advertising agencies are deemed to be incorporated in these conditions of acceptance of advertisement orders for the publication of all advertisements accepted from a recognised advertising agency.

The advertiser warrants to the publisher that his advertisement complies with all legislative requirements.

While every endeavour will be made to forward replies to box numbers to the advertiser as soon as possible, no liability can be accepted in respect of any loss or damage alleged to arise through any delay in forwarding replies however caused.

Advertisement space cancelled after 4pm on the Friday preceding publication date, may be liable to a surcharge of the full cost of the advertisement.

Notice to Readers

Whilst every effort is made to ensure that correct copy is carried in the advertisements within this newspaper, we are unable to accept responsibility for any loss incurred through reliance on the printed text.
