

Location of new pickle line and acid regeneration plant

The new pickle line will be constructed within the existing Cold Mill building, in a bay adjacent to the current pickle line. The acid regeneration plant will be constructed in “pickle alley”, to the west of the Cold Mill building, on a site currently occupied by offices and a workshop.

