4. Details of our assessment

I (Environment Officer Gavin Dodd) arrived at the Thomas Waste site on Friday 29th August at 09:15 to conduct an inspection regarding a discharge of trade effluent from the waste transfer station at Hafod Garage to Cwm Nantmalyn (Permit Number AN0353601). Site manager Gareth Thomas were also in attendance.

As per the permit, the discharge was to be comprised of trade effluent consisting of site drainage. This site drainage was channelled through manholes and into a three stage interceptor on site before discharging to Cwm Nantmalyn.

The discharge to the watercourse was first inspected. The water flowing from the culvert appeared clear of suspended solids and there was no odour or trace of oil/grease.

The site drainage was carried through a three stage interceptor via a network of drains on site. There was no run off observed from the site outside of the interceptor system. There was an oily sheen to the surface of the water in these chambers, though this decreased from the first chamber to the final. Mr Thomas took a small bucket of water out of each chamber and each appeared clearer than the last; the oil in the interceptor was not observed in the watercourse.

I requested the maintenance programme and waste transfer notes for the interceptor system, as is required under Condition 1.6- Maintenance and 1.7- Recording and Reporting; these were not available immediately on site, but are necessary to confirm the site is compliant with these conditions.
