Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

This variation notice gives effect to the changes set out below, as a result of an application made by the operator.

- Inclusion of an household commercial and industrial waste transfer station with treatment facility
- Additional waste types included for the site to operate as a household and commercial recycling centre facility
- The site name is amended as Bessemer Close Household and Commercial Waste Recycling Centre
- Total annual throughput increased from 25,000 tonnes per year to 40,000 tonnes per year.

As a result of the operators request existing permit has been updated and consolidated to the modern Environmental Permitting Regulations standards.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
