Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

This variation and consolidation of the permit takes account of the details set out in the closure plan and associated supporting documents and updates the limitations and environmental monitoring and reporting requirements accordingly.

Ongoing activities at the site will consist of:

Flaring of landfill gas

Burning of landfill gas in engines

Pumping of leachate

Removal of leachate

Deposition of limited quantities of restoration materials

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
