Water Resources Act 1991

Section 161A

Notes:

General

1. Failure to comply with this Notice is an offence under Section 161D of the Water Resources Act 1991 and may result in legal action being taken against you.
2. You have a right of appeal against this Notice.
3. You may wish to seek independent legal advice.
4. Natural Resources Wales is entitled (unless the notice is quashed or withdrawn) to recover from you its costs or expenses reasonably incurred in carrying out such investigations as are mentioned in section 161(4) Water Resources Act 1991.
5. This works notice is without prejudice to the powers of Natural Resources Wales to carry out any works or operations under section 161(5)(a) or 161ZA(6)(a) Water Resources Act 1991.

Appeal Provisions

You are entitled to appeal against this Notice under Section 161C of the Water Resources Act 1991. Notice of appeal must be made within a period of 21 days beginning with the service of this Notice. An appeal does not suspend the requirements of this notice.

At the same time you must send a copy of the appeal notice and documents to us.

The notice of appeal must contain or be accompanied by a statement of the grounds of the appeal. You must state whether you wish the appeal to be determined on the basis of written representations or a hearing. The notice of appeal must include your name and address. It must also include the names and addresses of all the persons you have served with a copy of the notice of appeal.

Include copies of any relevant documentation. Where the ground of appeal is that the notice might lawfully have been served on some other person, you must also send a copy of the notice and a list of documents to that person.

Welsh Ministers have the power to uphold your appeal, to modify any of the requirements of this notice, or to dismiss your appeal.

If you wish to withdraw your appeal, you must do so by notice informing Welsh Ministers and you should send a copy of the notice to us. You must also tell anyone else who you sent a copy of your notice of appeal.

In this document 'Natural Resources Wales' means the Natural Resources Body for Wales established by Article 3 of the Natural Resources Body for Wales (Establishment) Order 2012.

You should note that the Natural Resources Body for Wales has been formed by bringing together the Countryside Council for Wales, Forestry Commission Wales and Environment Agency Wales. The Natural Resources Body for Wales has been empowered to exercise Welsh devolved functions since 1st April 2013 and has, generally, taken over the responsibilities of the Countryside Council for Wales, the Forestry Commissioners and the Environment Agency in Wales.
