Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

The purpose of this permit variation is to add two 223Kw and four 113Kw Biomass Boilers to the associated activities of the permit. The permitted number of birds on site is not being increased and the site boundary will not change.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
