Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

This variation incorporates the changes required by the Industrial Emissions Directive following a statutory review of permits in the production of the refineries sector. This includes the amendment of the wording of several permit conditions relating to notifications and also includes the addition of a condition relating to a requirement for monitoring of groundwater, soil and relevant hazardous substances required by IED. Consideration for the Water Framework Directive is also included.

The Industrial Emissions Directive (IED) came into force on 7 January 2014 with the requirement to implement all relevant Best Available Techniques (BAT) conclusions as described in the Commission Implementing Decision. The BAT conclusions for the refineries sector were published on 28th October 2014 in the Official Journal of the European Union following a European Union wide review of BAT, implementing decision 2014/738/EU of 9th October 2014. We are satisfied that the operator will be compliant with the published BAT conclusions which will apply from 28th October 2018.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit. Schedule 1 of the notice specifies the conditions that have been varied and schedule 2 comprises a consolidated permit which reflects the changes being made.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
