

Schedule 5 - Notification

These pages outline the information that the operator must provide.

Units of measurement used in information supplied under Part A and B requirements shall be appropriate to the circumstances of the emission. Where appropriate, a comparison should be made of actual emissions and authorised emission limits.

If any information is considered commercially confidential, it should be separated from non-confidential information, supplied on a separate sheet and accompanied by an application for commercial confidentiality under the provisions of the EP Regulations.

Any more accurate information on the matters for notification under Part A.	Following data download, it was identified that the monitor had ceased to record dust data part way through Q3. The monitor had an airflow error which required a site visit by a Turnkey engineer for installation of replacement parts. The instrument was also calibrated at this time and is back in full operation.
Measures taken, or intended to be taken, to prevent a recurrence of the incident	CELSA has upgraded the contract to include site visits in case of any part failure or reading error in the future. Additionally, CELSA set up an automatic email from the online download site so that monthly reports are sent and any errors or faults are brought to the attention of the Env Department as soon as they occur.
