RIGHTS OF APPEAL

Section 43(1) of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 provides that:

Where, except in pursuance of a direction given by the National Assembly for Wales,

- a an application for a modification of the conditions to a licence is rejected; or
- b the conditions of a licence are modified;

then the applicant for the modification of the licence or, as the case may be, the holder of the licence may appeal from the decision to the National Assembly for Wales.

Therefore if you feel aggrieved by the decision or any of the conditions to the licence as modified you may obtain the appropriate form on which to give notice of an appeal from:-

National Assembly for Wales
Cathays Park
Cardiff
CF10 3NQ

This notice of appeal should be accompanied by the following information: a copy of the licence; a copy of any correspondence relevant to the appeal; a copy of any other document relevant to the appeal including, in particular, any relevant consent, determination, notice, planning permission, established use certificate or certificate of lawful use or development; and a statement indicating whether you wish the appeal to be in the form of a hearing or on the basis of written representations. You are also required to serve a copy of your notice of appeal, together with copies of any of the above documents that have accompanied your notice of appeal, on the Environment Agency (at the address below). You should appeal within 6 months of the date that this notice takes effect but the National Assembly for Wales may allow notice of appeal to be given after the expiry of this time period.

Copies of the notice of appeal together with copies of any of the documents that have accompanied your notice of appeal should be served on:

Environment Agency Wales
Chester Road
Buckely
Flintshire
