Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

This permit variation is to increase the permitted area, to amend the waste types to be accepted and to amend the permitted activities (physical treatment activities added). The permit has also been consolidated and updated to modern format as the result of the operator-led variation.

The site name has also changed as a result of a request by the operator.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number.
