Introductory note

This introductory note does not form a part of the notice.

The following notice gives notice of the variation and consolidation of an environmental permit.

This regulator led variation, consolidates the existing permits and working plans to the modern environmental permit format. It includes improvement conditions for the operator to provide a fire prevention and mitigation plan and an environment management system.

The variation removes the references to the working plan and includes correct infrastructure requirements for the waste the operator currently accepts.

The schedules specify the changes made to the permit.

The status log of a permit sets out the permitting history, including any changes to the permit reference number
