

Planning Applications

Back to search page

Application Details

|                              |                                                                                          |
|------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Application Reference Number | 900649                                                                                   |
| Application type             |                                                                                          |
| Proposal                     | Revision of final contours of existing site and incorporation of former site to the west |
| Decision                     | Approved Subject to Conditions                                                           |
| Agent name                   | No agent                                                                                 |
| Applicant(s)                 |                                                                                          |
| Company                      | Director of Technical Services                                                           |
| Location for the application | Borth Waste Disposal Site                                                                |
| Grid reference               | 261200, 289300                                                                           |
| Ward                         |                                                                                          |
| Planning officer             | Tim Ball                                                                                 |

Key Dates

|                         |           |
|-------------------------|-----------|
| Date received           | 5/9/1990  |
| Date validated          | 5/9/1990  |
| Proposed committee date |           |
| Date of decision        | 11/8/1991 |

More information

View site location

(The application will be red lined and cross-hatched and will open in another window)

View documents

To contact us further regarding this Application please click on this email address below quoting the above Reference Number as part of the Subject.

Contact us

